FROM CHTTANOOGA. Exchange of Prisoners.

CHATTANOOGA, Sept. 22.-Sherman, by a special arrangement with Hood has effected an exchange of 4000 prisoners. Of a batch of 900 rebels 17 refused to be exchanged, and took the oath.
Of one hundred picked men on duty with the gag of truce at Rough and Ready, twenty-one deserted-a fair index of Hood's army. The truce between Sherman and Hood expired to day, but it will be extended several days to complete the removal of families.

FROM THE SOUTHWEST. Reported Capture of Little Rock, Arkan-

kansas by the Rebels. New York, Sept. 23d .- The steamer Emily Souder from New Orleans, on the 15th inst. arrived here this morning. An arrival from up the river at New Orleans, gives a doubtful rumour that Little Rock has been captured. A large supply of clothing, etc. has been sent by flag of truce, via Red River to the Union prisoners.

Hereafter, no persons will be arrested in New Orleans without a written accusation against them. The water in the Mississippi river is very IMPORTANT CORRESPONDENCE. General Grant and President Lincoln-Confidence of General Grant in the Administration.

The following is a correspondence which took place between the President and Lieutenant General Grant, and may prove interesting, as it furnishes an inside view of military

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, April 30, 1864. Lieutenant General Grant:

Not expecting to see you before the spring campaign opens, I wish to express, in this way, my entire satisfaction with what you have done up to this time, so for as I understand it. The particulars of your plans I neither know nor seek to know You are vigilant and self-reliant, and, pleased with this, I wish not to obtrude any restraints or constraints upon you. While I am very anxious that any great disaster or capture of any of our men in any great numbers shall be avoided, I know that these points are less likely to escape your attention than they would be mine. If there be anything wanting which is within my power to give, do not fail to let me know it. And now, with a brave army and a just cause, may Ged sustain you. Yours, very truly, A. LINCOLN.

HEADQUARTERS ARMIES UNITED STATES,) Culpeper C. H., Va., May 1, 1861. The President :

Your very kind letter of yesterday is just received. The confidence you express for the future and satisfaction for the past, in my military administration, is acknowledged with pride. It shall be my earnest endeavor that you and the country shall not be disappointed. From my first entrance into the volunteer service of the country to the present day, I have never had cause of complaint, have never expressed or implied a complaint against the Administration or the Secretary of War for throwing any embarrassment in the way of my vigorously prosecuting what appeared to be my duty. Indeed, since the promotion which placed me in command of all the armies, and in view of the great responsibility and importance of success, I have been astonished at the readiness which everything asked for has been yielded without even an explanation being asked.

Should my success be less than I desire and expect, the least I can say is, the fault is not with you. Very truly, your ob't servant, U. S. GRANT, Lieutenant General

OFFICIAL WAR BULLETIN. Another Victory in the Valley—Enemy's Infantry at Flint Hill Attacked - A Strongly Intrenched Position Carried—Probable Capture of Dispatches by Mosby. WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, September 22-9 p. m. 5

Major General Dix, New York: Dispatches down to 9 o'clock last night have been received from General Sheridan. A portion of the rebel cavalry, having turned off to Front Royal, were pursued, attacked, and driven by our cavalry, which was still pursuing.

The rebel infantry made a stand at Flint

Hill, a strongly intrenched position beyond Strasburg, which was attacked by our forces last evening, and the crest carried and held by our troops. There is reason to believe that later dispatches were captured last night by Mosby, near Winchester. General Stevenson reports that Sheridan's supply trains arrived safely at Winchester last EDWIN M STANTON, Secretary of War.

General Sheridan is making the most of the grand success achieved by him on Monday, and is determined to give the enemy no rest on their retreat, constantly harrassing their rear, cutting him up at every chance, and daily capturing prisoners. After driving the vanquished foe through Strasburg, a portion of their cavalry turned off in the direction of Front Royal, where our cavalry attacked them, the enemy again retreating and being again pursued. The rebel infantry made a stand at Flint Hill, Rappahannock county, about twenty miles south of Strasburg, and forty from Winchester, where they were attacked and the crest of their position carried. Flint Hill is on this side of the Luray Mountain. and this movement of the enemy indicates that they have been so badly punished that they are compelled to abandon the Valley, their line of retreat being in the direction of Culpepper and Gordonsville.

FINANCIAL.—The New York Evening Post

says: In the absence of any trustworthy news of importance, the bears have this morning revived the rumors of the immediate issue of a new Government loan, and such are the feverish irritability and apprehensive incertitude of the public mind, that symptoms resembling those of a panic have more than once appeared, and as there has been no bull interest strong enough to resist the downward pressure, the natural consequence has been a general disinclination to buy speculative securi-

At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the friends of Lincoln and Johnson, in this city last night, the following was one of the resolutions adopted: - " Resolved, That the Hon. Reverdy Johnson, in avowing his determination to abandon Lincoln and Johnson, and support the copperhead candidate nominated at Chicago, does not astonish that portion of the people of Maryland who know him best A political trickster at all times, he has betrayed all parties that put him in power, and now his adhesion to the enemies of his country will only have the effect of forever damning him in the estimation of the very few who believed him worthy of the confidence of the

The Lewistown Journal has returns from nearly four hundred towns and plantations in Maine, which shows about 17,000 majority for the Union side. Every county, except Aroostook, is certainly Union, and the Aroostook Times is of the opinion that that county is also on the right side. Admitting it, however, to be the other way, the State Senate will stand, Union, 30; Democrat, 1; the House probably 124 Unionists to 27 Democrats—a handsome gain from last year. There is a considerable falling off in the vote on both sides, equal perhaps to nearly 10,000 in all.

LATE NEWS FROM THE SOUTH. A Peace Conference at Adanta—Sherman Cerresponding with Rebels—Exchange of Prisoners Borween Sherman and Hood

From Richmond papers of Sept. 19th we get the following interesting intelligence: From Georgia. PEACS RUMORS - EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS

AGREED ON. MACON, Sept. 17 .- Rumors are rife to-day that Gen. Sherman has sent an informal re quest to Governor Brown, Vice President Ste phens and H. V. Johnson to come to Atlanta and confer with him on the subject of peace. General Hood has relieved his chief of staff, Brig. Gen. Shoup, from duty. Major Mason is now acting in that capacity.

Five hundred exiled families have arrived in our lines from Atlanta. Their condition is most deplorable. A special exchange of 2,000 prisoners has been agreed upon by Gen'ls Hood and Sherman, and 600 Yankees will be sent forward tonight for that purpose. MACON, Sept. 16 .- Parties arrived here from Atlanta say that great numbers of Sherman's army are going home, and that 10,000 are already gone, and more are following, their terms of service being out. The whole situation here looks well. Yesterday was observed by the people as a day of fasting and prayer.

From Mobile. MOBILE, Sept. 16 .- The Yankee gunboat Selma (formerly Confederate) anchored on Wednesday night near one of our batteries on the eastern shore. At daylight yesterday morning she was opened on by the battery, struck wice, when she hastily retreated. The three Yankee gunboats that went up Fish river, on Sunday last, stole 6.000 feet of lumber, a num ber of cattle, and destroyed the furniture at Milsmith and Patlor. From the Valley We have no news from the Valley. Well informed persons from that section say an able and enterprising leader like Hampton is much needed by our cavalry.

From Gen. Hood's Army. The telegraph informs us that a partial exchange of prisoners has been agreed upon between Gens. Hood and Sherman. There were rumors in the army on Saturday hat Sherman had sent an informal message. requesting Vice President Stevens, Governor Brown and Confederate States Senator Johnson to come to Atlanta and confer with him on the subject of peace. If Sherman has sent any such message, he must be deluded into the idea that in capturing Atlanta he has subjugated the State. We trust he will soon be roughly wakened from this delusion.

This forenoon, Capt. Ellis, the acting Inspector General of Gen. Torbert's division of cavalry, reached here from the front in the Valley, bringing eight rebel battle and regimental flags captured by that division in the engagement of Monday last. He proceeded immediately to the War Department, where they were formally presented to the Secretary of War in the name of Gen, Sheridan.

Six of the men bearing them were the actual captors of the flag each carried; their names being George Reynolds, company I, 6th New York cavalry; Patrick McEnmore, 6th New York cavalry; Color Corporal Chester B. Bowen, company I, - New York dragoons; Geo. E. Meach, 56th New York cavalry; Henry M. Fox, company M, 5th Michigan cavalry Gabriel Cole, company I, 5th Michigan cavalry; Andrew J. Lorish, regimental commissary sergeant 1st New York cavalry. The flags identified were those of the 36th Virginia volunteers and 2d Virginia infantry, and the 46th Virginia regiment. The Secretary called each one of the gallant fellows up, and after shaking hands with him inquired his name and position, which were duly noted. After the last flag was presented, he said to them:

"I return to you, gentlemen, the thanks of this Department, for the valor and gallantry you have displayed in the capture of these flags. I will direct the Adjutant General to furnish you with medals, with your name inscribed thereon, and they will be sent to your commanders for delivery to you, as soon as they can be prepared. The Adjutant General will take charge of these flags and place them among the archives of the Department."

He further requested them to return the Department's thanks to their brave comrades in arms, who participated in achieving the glorious victory in which these flags had been taken Several of the flags had inscribed upon them the names of the places at which they had been carried into engagements; one of them (that of the 2d Virginia infantry) being inscribed as follows, viz: Manassas, No. 1, Kearnstown, Winchester, No. 1, Port Republic, Manassas, No. 2 Chantilly, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Winchester, No. 2, Gettysburg, Cold Harbor, Malvern Hill and Cedar Run. This flag was so tattered and torn that the inscriptions upon it were hardly eligible. Another was a Con. federate National flag, made last week in Winchester, and presented on Sunday, the day before the battle, to the regiment from which it

A SCOUT THROUGH PAIRFAX AND LOU-DON COUNTIES. A detachment of cavalry sent out from Falls Church, Va., on Wednesday made a scout through Fairfax and a portion of Loudon counties, but without meeting any considerable body of rebels. They, however, picked up a number of horses and the following rebel stragglers, who have been sent to this city and committed to the Old Capitol: Thos. Coleman, 3d Ga.; Richard Herritt, 49th Va.; Amos Diggs. rebel quartermaster's department; Robt. Keenan and Geo. W. Amos, railroad employees.

FROM CITY POINT.

The mail steamer T. A. Morgan, Capt. Ed. gar, arrived here at noon to-day, from City Point. She reports nothing new. Day before yesterday a salute in honor of Sheridan's victory was fired along the entire line. The rebel batteries opened while the salute was being fired but did no execution. The rebels ceased firing as soon as our last gun was fired.

A STOCK JOBBING CANARD.—The story put forth by a city cotemporary yesterday with such ostentatious triple-leaded display, that Jeff. Davis has written a letter proposing terms of peace, has not the slightest foundation in fact, and was simply a stock jobbing canard.

FROM MISSOURI. Reported Fight at White Water River, CAIRO, Sept. 23 .- Citizns just from Charleston, Mo., state that the 2d Missouri Militia, fearing an attack from a superior force of Shelly's rebels, evacuated Bloomfield, Mo., and retired in the direction of White Water river. It was reported in Charleston that the enemy 7,000 strong had overtaken the militia and a fight was going on at White Water last night. Great excitement existed in Charleston but it is not thought that any considerable number of rebels have been in that vicinity.

Mr. Lancoln says he does not lead, but follows, the will of the people. It remains, then, for the people, in the event of his re-election, vigilantly to require the following at his hands, and further to require that, in the execution of his duties, he keeps scrupulously within the Constitution and the laws; to make him recognize that he holds his place and his yower, not as belonging to himself, but as a really faithful servant of the people.

LOCAL NEWS.

FOURTH WARD DRAFT MEETING .- The citizens of the Fourth Ward held another meeting at the City Hall last night to take further action in clearing the ward of the impending draft, Mr. Asbury Floyd in the chair.

Mr. John Chauncy, of the recruiting committee, reported that he had not put in any recruits during Thursday, but that he had been swindled out of a man that he had expected to get from Alexandria by the adjutant of the 1st D. C. regiment. This recruit had sworn by all that was good and bad that he would not go into the service unless he was credited to the Fourth Ward, but after being mustered in this adjutant had the man placed to the credit of Geergetown, contrary to his expressed wishes. It was a clear swindle, and Mr C. wanted the meeting to take some action in the matter. He presented an affidavit sworn to by two witesses, setting forth the facts in the case.

Mr. Herbert, from the committee to revise the enrollment, reported that twenty-four gentlemen had presented evidence of having furnished substitutes. The committee on finance returned, as the results of their labors on Thursday, $372.50 in cash, and the names of four $100 conditional contributors. Of the sum received in cash, Mr. W. E. Egan paid $100.

Mr. Edmonson moved a reconsideration of the resolution passed on Wednesday evening, appropriating $100 to each man putting in a substitute to the credit of the Fourth Ward.

A resolution was then adopted authorizing the treasurer to pay $200 to each and every resident of the Fourth Ward who should put in a substitute. A resolution was adopted appointing a committee of five to call upon Mr. George Lee, of the Canterbury, and request him to name some night on which he would give the enrolled men of the Fourth Ward a benefit to aid in swelling the fund for the purpose of filling ward quota.

Mr. J. M. Barbour introduced a resolution instructing the committee on finance to call on every man in the ward liable to the draft, who has not subscribed $25, and request him to make his subscription equal to that amount. In case the draft takes place in the Fourth Ward, according to this resolution, the money on hand is to be divided equally among those of the subscribers who are drafted. The resolution was adopted. Mr. D. Blaheolee offered the following, which was also adopted: Resolved, That the treasurer be authorized to pay to each man enrolled in the Fourth Ward who shall present the proofs of his enlistment subsequent to this date, and previous to the draft in said ward, the sum of $200. Mr. Henry Lyles urged upon every person who had any information which would tend to reduce the enrollment, to report the same to the enrollment committee. Mr. L. stated that the whole vote of the city was but a little over 7,000, while the enrollment of the Fourth Ward was 4,600. This was excessive, but could be accounted for from the fact that 1,700 men at the wagon corral had been enrolled in the Fourth Ward. At least 500 of this number have been sentaway, and an equal number have enlisted. Mr. C. M. Tompkins moved the appointment of a committee of three to wait upon the Secretary of war and bring to his notice the facts set forth in the affidavit presented by Mr The motion was agreed to, and the chair appointed upon the committee Messrs. Lloyd,

Moore and Barbour. Mr. J. M. Barbour introduced a resolution, which was adopt d, authorizing the finance committee to appoint two men to each block, to visit every house in their respective squares or blocks, and ascertain how many persons have enlisted or put in substitutes, and collect the amount of $25 from all who are liable to the

The chair, in pursuance of a resolution, appointed a recruiting committee of colored men of the ward, as follows: Thomas Martin, Alfred Geiger, Wm. Slade, John W. French and Wm. Ford.

THE STAMP ROBBERY .- We yesterday noted the fact that B. F. Wilkins, chief clerk of the stamp division of the General Post Office, had been arrested on Tuesday last, on a charge of abstracting poetage stamps and appropriating them to his own use. Yesterday atternoon witnesses were summoned before the Grand Jury, and indictment was found and the accused was taken from the Police headquarters and committed to jail for trial. We have learned the following particulars of the case It seems that for some time past a large num-ber of stamps have been missed. George W. Alexander, formerly a clerk in the Depart-ment, went to a Mr. Wharton and asked him if he wanted to make $1,000. Wharton said he would like to de it in an honorable way, and Alexander then stated that from time to time he had sold large quantities of stamps to a party in Philadelphia, and that Wharton could do the same thing. Mr. Wharton went to Philadelphia, saw the party pointed out by Alexander, and ascertained that his (Alexander's) statement was correct.

Wharton at once communicated the facts to the Post Office Department, and a prominent officer there placed the matter in the hands of the energetic detectives. McDevitt and Clarvoe, for investigation. George W. Alexander was at once arrested, and afterwards Wilkins was also taken into custody, and both were locked up in the police headquarters. McDevitt then went to Philadelphia, and with the assistance of detectives Geo. D. Callanan and Edw'd S. Carling, of that city, arrested a man named Samuel Strauss, at No. 100 Merwin street. A search was instituted, and upon the person of Strauss was found a large quantity of ninety cent stamps and the address of H. R. Wharton, box 75, post office, Washington, showing that he (Wharton) had been to Philadelphia to ascertain the truth of Alexander's statements. In Strauss' trunks and drawers were found large numbers of stamps and letters from Alexander, and letters from parties in Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria in regard to the sale of quantities of stamps, and receipts showing that sales had been made. Strauss was taken before Mayor Henry, and by him held to bail in the sum of $5,000 for his appearance on Saturday for a hearing. Yesterday afternoon, as stated above, Wilkins and Alexander were both committed to jail for court. Mr. McDevitt yesterday went to Philadelphia to attend to the case of Strauss, positive evidence of his guilt and complicity with Wilkins and Alexander having been obtained. The amount of stamps stolen is variously estimated, some asserting $10,000 will cover all losses, while others put the losses at as high a figure as $15,000, $25,000, and even $30,000. The exact amount will be ascertained in a few days. These peculations, it is supposed, have been going on for a long while. Wilkins' duty was to destroy damaged stamps returned from postmasters throughout the country, but there were always a number that were not damaged in the least, and it was the latter that the accused appropriated.

Wilkins is from Virginia originally, is a printer by trade, and has heretofore borne a THE SEVENTH WARD EXEMPTION ASSOCIA-TION, met last night, Mr. T. E. Lloyd in the

Mr. Semmes stated that he had put in two men to the credit of the ward during the day, one recruit and one substitute. He could have accomplished a great deal more with sufficient help, and he suggested that a committee be appointed to render him assistance. The Chair suggested that as labor was very tribute to the fund and thereby avoid a draft in the ward. The effect would be to save their men and benefit themselves.

Mr. McGinnis thought the city authorities should make some appropriation to relieve the city of the draft. He moved that a committee

The motion was adopted and the Chair appointed Mr. McGmnis, Dr. R. C. Groggin, and John H. Bird. Justice F. A. Boswell moved that a com-

A MILITARY DETECTIVE CHARGED WITH SERIOUS OFFENSES.—Last night, a young man named Henry O. Wright, was arrested by officers Morris and Smith for . ttempting to pass counterfeit money, for assault, and for grand larceny. This morning the case was tried before Justice Giberson, when it appeared by the evidence, that the prison er went to the store of P. Emerich, 7th, near G street, and purchased a ring for $12, and gave a fifty dollar note. The lady that waited on him took the note to her brother, who did not like its appearance, and he showed it to another pers.on, who pronounced it counterfeit. The note was taken back to Wright, and he was told it was counterfeit. Wright said he got it from the Government. Emerich replied that the Government never issued such notes. Wright hen said he get it from the man he worked for. Emerich told him to pay three dollars in good money, which he had, leave the ring and get it when he paid the balance in the morning. Wright opened his coat and showed a military detective badge. Emerich remarked that he did not care for that, as he could call an officer. Wright turned to run out; the lady seized him by the coat, and he got out of it, and got out of the door and ran, but was caught by Mr. Emerich, with the ring in his pocket, and a revolver, which he attempted to draw, but Emerich took it from him.

They kept him until officers came, who took him to the station-house, and found the ring, some money, and the keys upon him. Taking his keys, they went to his boarding house and searched his trunk, and found three fifty dollar notes of the same sort. A pair of gold sleeve buttons found upon Wright, were purchased from F. Menkert about an hour before the attempt at Emericks. He paid Menkert with a similar note, receiving $43 good money in change. Wright is a military detective, and says taat he got the notes from parties, and was expecting to catch all concerned in making them. Justice Giberson committed him in default of bail for court in each case.

The counterfeit U. S. fifties are well executed, and would be readily taken for genuine by persons not accustomed to handling greenbacks of that denomination. The green ink is very pale and would excite suspicion directly with persons who handle the genuine frequently. Wright is a fine looking young man, 21 years of age, and was stationed at the Balimore and Ohio Railroad Depot, under Capt.
